

Boarding facilities at John Curtin

We live in the country and my child wants to apply for a Gifted and Talented program. Do you have boarding facilities at your college?

No, but there are two facilities available for country students. Most of our students use the City Beach Residential College, who drop off and pick up the students from the college and transport them to and from rehearsals and performances. Find out more.