

Do you offer Football as a specialist program?

John Curtin College of the Arts' Football Specialist Program is Western Australia's leading football program in secondary schools. We provide a holistic education for students within a football environment. Our program addresses the social, academic and athletic abilities of every individual, giving each student the maximum opportunity to succeed. We develop students' skills, attitude and knowledge to enable them to compete successfully in football at the highest level.