Student Name _____ Current School _____

Music Enrichment is studied in place of the Rotational Enrichment Program.

See information on reverse side regarding the rotational enrichment program.

Music Enrichment includes timetabled music lessons, instrumental lessons (for current IMSS students) and ensemble. Embedded in the Music Enrichment program are units providing engaging and creative learning experiences to equip our students with future skills. Our Study Hacks program which reinforces and educates students on personal learning and study techniques is delivered through this program.

There are two options for applying to enrol in the music enrichment program.

OPTION ONE - Current Instrumental Music School Services (IMSS) program

Students who are currently studying music through the Instrumental Music School Services (IMSS) program. Instrumental tuition is offered on any instrument you currently study through the Instrumental Music School Services (IMSS).

I am currently receiving tuition on _____ (instrument) through the Instrumental Music School Services program and wish to continue. (If your instrument is guitar please specify Classical Guitar or Electric Guitar)

OPTION TWO - Students currently studying music through a Non-Government School or engaged in private lessons

Students who have studied music through private lessons or Non-Government Schools will be selected on the results of an aural test and interview. Students must continue with their private lessons to support learning as IMSS lessons cannot be accessed. The school will provide two periods of music lessons per week and there will be an opportunity to join ensembles.

I am currently receiving tuition on _____ (instrument) through private/Non-Government school lessons and wish to continue. (If your instrument is guitar please specify Classical Guitar or Electric Guitar)

OPTIONS ONE AND TWO - please complete and sign below

I am aware that it is a two-year commitment, with compulsory ensemble attendance and that Ensemble rehearsals take place outside of school hours. (Please Check)

Please attach a copy of your instrumental report from your school/private tutor. (Report Attached)
